Dear Parents,
Namasthe.

Date: 08.07.2026

This is to inform you that Periodic Test-I will commence on Thursday, 9 July 2026.

Kindly note the following instructions:

- The examinations will be conducted during regular school hours.
- The examination for a particular day may be scheduled either in the morning or the afternoon, as per the examination timetable.
- Examination timings may vary according to the schedule.
- Requests for half-day leave during the examination period will not be entertained. Kindly refrain from sending such requests.
- If your child is unwell, please keep them at home.
- No re-examinations will be conducted for students who are absent from the tests.

We request you to create a calm and conducive study environment at home to help your child prepare well and perform confidently in the examinations. Your support, encouragement, and guidance play a vital role in your child's academic success.

We also request parents to ensure that their child eats nutritious, home-cooked food and avoids outside food to minimize the risk of illness during the examinations.

Kindly ensure that your child attends all examinations regularly and reaches school on time.

With warm regards,

(K. ANANDAVALLI)
